

My name is Rhonda Brown and this is a photo of my grandson, Brenden Brown, who was murdered on November 22, 2019. My grandson meant the world to my family. I raised Brenden from birth. Brenden was not raised to be a street person. As a matter of fact, Brenden worked full time at Cheryl's Cookies and my dad just bought him his first car as a graduation gift. Brenden was well liked by everyone and I raised him to be very respectful to all. He would not hurt a fly. He would give anyone his shirt off his back if need be.

Sincerely waiting patiently,

Rhonda brown
